Crisis Response Specialist (PT)

The Crisis Response Specialist “Night-owl” position is a part-time, statewide remote position covering the hours of 8 p.m.- 8 a.m. Mon-Fri and Sat and Sun, 8 a.m.- 8 a.m. Please note that on weekends, shifts are split among multiple advocates, with a minimum of 4–6-hour shifts.

Crisis Response Specialists are a part of the Statewide Sexual and Domestic Violence Hotline under the supervision of CRT Managers. The Crisis Response Specialist will provide trauma-informed, healing-centered response(s) to/for callers on the Statewide Hotline, including the PREA/DOC hotline. One of the major focus areas of a Crisis Response Specialist is providing crisis supportive services to/for survivors who are from historically marginalized and oppressed communities.

Who we’re looking for: Motivated individuals who are passionate about providing trauma-informed services and support to survivors from all walks of life. The preferred candidate(s) will be able to listen deeply, communicate calmly and effectively, and problem-solve when needed. This position requires a minimum of two years of related experience working in the social justice field, specifically working on a DV or SV hotline and/or warm line. This position is an awake position. The candidate for this position must reside in VA, have reliable internet access, and have a dedicated quiet workspace environment.

Compensation: This is a part-time, non-exempt hourly position with compensation of $18.78 an hour (for actual hours worked) and a stipend rate for the hours on a shift.  Work on agency-recognized holidays will be paid at the rate of time and a half. A benefits package is not offered for this position. (This will be explained in full detail at the interest meeting and/or upon offering of a position.)

How to Apply: Please email your resume, cover letter, and three references to hotline@vsdvalliance.org and include “PT Crisis Response Specialist" in the subject line. Applications accepted through Monday, November 9th. If you are selected for an interview, we will send an invitation to the Interest information session on November 11th at 6:00p.
